KELLAR'S KEEP™

HeroQuest™

Alchemist's Shop

These potions may be purchased only between Quests.

Potion of Restoration

Cost: 500 Gold Coins

Drink this brown, frothy liquid to restore 1 lost Body Point and 1 lost Mind Point. It's refreshing after a tough battle!

Potion of Dexterity

Cost: 100 Gold Coins

This sparkling liquid adds 5 movement squares to your next die roll or guarantees 1 successful pit jump. If you purchase more than one of these potions, you may use only 1 potion per turn.

Potion of Battle

Cost: 200 Gold Coins

If you have a really "weak" roll of the attack dice, you may drink this blood-red potion. It allows you 1 re-roll of your attack dice.

Venom Antidote

Cost: 300 Gold Coins

This bubbling brew tastes foul, but heals up to 2 Body Points of damage caused by poison needles or poison darts only.

Kellar's Keep™

The adventure continues! Kellar's Keep is an expansion set used with your original Hero Quest Game System. You must have the Game System in order to play the adventures in this booklet.

Contents: 8 Orcs, 6 Goblins, 3 Firmin, cardboard tile sheet

Cardboard sheet includes:

- 1 Two-sided Iron Door
- 1 Two-sided Wooden Door
- 4 Short Stairway Tiles
- 2 Long Stairway Tiles
- 1 Cliff Corridor Tile
- 1 Giant Stone Boulder Tile
- 12 Blocked Square Tiles
- 2 Pit Trap Tiles
- 2 Trap Door Tiles
- 1 Weapons Forge Tile
- 1 Cloud of Chaos Tile
- 1 Four-part Stone Map Tile

All components should be carefully removed from the cardboard sheet. New game components are described below, at right and on the following page.

New Components

Door Assembly
Take 2 plastic door stands from the Game System. The 2 new doors in this Quest Pack should be folded and fitted into the door bases as shown at right. These doors are described above right.

Giant Stone Boulder
The giant stone boulder rolls down a corridor, doing great damage to anything in its path.

The Weapons Forge
The forge is a place where Dwarven blacksmiths once created the finest and sturdiest weapons in the land.

Four-part Stone Map
These pieces fit together to form a stone map. Finding the map pieces is a major objective in this Quest Pack.

Trap Doors
The 2 trap doors are used to link 2 visually unconnected rooms via an unseen "tunnel." When landing on 1 trap door, a Hero moves instantly to the other trap door.

Note: The small illustrations shown with each component above are Quest map symbol references. These symbols are also the exact size needed for the blank "create your own" Quest map provided in the Game System Quest Book. All you have to do is photocopy the symbols and cut them out.

When creating your own Quest adventures, you may use these components in any way that you can imagine. For example, the stairs could be used to link several levels of a multi-map Quest.

Long Stairway

There are 5 movement squares on the long stairway. These tiles are used to create the effect of climbing up or down stairs.

Short Stairway

There are 3 movement squares on the short stairway. These tiles are used to create the effect of climbing up or down stairs.

Cliff Corridor

The cliff corridor is used as Grin's Crag, a dangerous walkway near the entrance into Kellar's Keep. Each square on this tile counts as one space.

Cloud of Chaos

When surrounded by this mysterious, purple cloud, Heroes cannot "see" anything.

Wooden Exit Door

In most Quests, this special wooden door is used to exit the gameboard at the end of a Quest.

Iron Entrance Door

This iron door is placed on the edge of the gameboard in each Quest. Heroes line up outside the door to begin each Quest.

The Quests in Kellar's Keep are generally played the same way as the Quests in the Game System. It is especially important that these Quests be played in order. As in the Game System, Heroes are returned to full strength (all Body and Mind Points are restored) between Quests.

There are a few game play differences in Kellar's Keep:

1. Starting a Quest

The Heroes do not start their adventures on the spiral stairway tile used in the Game System. Instead, they enter through an iron door on the edge of the gameboard. This door is shown on the Quest map with an arrow pointing inward toward the gameboard. This door is always placed on the gameboard in its specified location before each Quest begins. At the start of an adventure, the Heroes line up outside the door and ask Zargon to open it.

2. Ending a Quest

Players may leave the gameboard only by locating the wooden exit door on the edge of the board, or by finding the spiral stairway that exists in one of the Quests. This exit door is shown on the Quest map with an arrow pointing outward from the gameboard.

Note: As with regular doors, an exit door will not be put on the gameboard by Zargon until a Hero looks down the appropriate corridor. An exit door is usually opened in the same way as a regular door, unless specified otherwise in the Quest notes.

Note: On his turn, any Hero who has artifacts may give them to other Heroes.

- Five Ring and the Magical Throwing Dagger: These artifacts are similar to the artifacts in the Game System. When a Hero finds one of these artifacts, he should record it on his Character Sheet. Unlike most artifacts in the Game System, however, these artifacts must be crossed off a Hero's Character Sheet after they are used.
- Spell Scrolls: The 8 remaining artifact cards are called spell scrolls. They are used just like the spell cards in the Game System. However, a spell scroll can be used by ANY Hero (not just the Wizard and Elf) who finds one.

4. New Artifact Cards

These new cards are found on the inside back cover of this Quest Book. Cut out the cards from the cover or, if you prefer, photocopy the inside cover, and then cut them out.

3. Treasures

To eliminate conflicts among the Heroes, large gold coin treasures found in treasure chests should be divided among all surviving Heroes.

A Message From Mentor

Most of the hidden tunnels near Karak Varn have long been forgotten. However, Loretoime has revealed to me a hidden passage known as Grin's Crag. This secret walkway is named after the Dwarf who first discovered it. While searching for a rich vein of gold, Grin found a narrow footpath running along the edge of an abyss. He explored beyond and found himself in the lower caverns of Kellar's Keep. Grin carved a map onto a stone tablet so that he might find the path again. He then broke the tablet into pieces and hid the fragments throughout the Halls of Belorn, ancient chambers that lie deep beneath the World's Edge Mountains. First, you must journey through the Halls of Belorn. These hallowed halls have been stripped of many of the riches that once adorned them. Yet a treasure or two may be found by a Hero with a keen eye. But beware! Orcs and Goblins now dwell here. You must make them pay dearly for their trespass.

Even Loretoime does not reveal the exact location of Grin's Crag. You must find the four pieces of Grin's stone map that are scattered throughout the halls. Only then can you travel the path to Kellar's Keep and lead the Emperor to safety.

I shall take you to the Great Gate, but from there you will be on your own. Good luck, my friends. When you need my guidance, listen deep within yourselves.

Mentor

Many thousands of years ago, the Dwarves made their home in the World's Edge Mountains. With their great engineering skills, they built vast cities that cut deep into the rock. The cities were connected by tunnels that stretched for miles beneath the mountains. On the eastern side of the mountains, the Dwarves constructed huge fortresses to guard against the evil legions of Chaos. The greatest of these fortresses was Karak Varn.

The Dwarves lived for many years in peace, for the Orcs and Goblins did not dare attack the well-defended cities. But during this time of peace, the Dwarves became careless. Their army grew smaller and their guards less vigilant.

Then came Zargon, the Evil Sorcerer and commander of all that is evil. Zargon spent years raising a vast army of Orcs, Goblins and monsters beyond description. When the attack came, there was no warning. The Dwarves fought with great valor, but their enemy was too strong. One by one the fortresses fell. Only Karak Varn held.

W

My friends, I have alarming news. The Emperor and his army are trapped in Kellar's Keep, the underground bastion of the fortress Karak Varn.

This great Dwarven stronghold lies deep within the heart of the World's Edge Mountains. The fortress is well defended, but I fear that time is against us. The Emperor's army weakens with starvation while the enemy grows stronger by the day.

It is up to you, brave Heroes, to rescue the Emperor. The great book Loretoime has revealed much useful information to me.

- A The treasure chest is empty.
- B These 3 secret doors are magically controlled and cannot be found by normal searching. You (as Zargon) may place one or more of these door(s) on the gameboard at the beginning of any of your turns. When you do so, you must immediately declare the door(s) open. Then place any monsters on either side of the doors onto the gameboard. You may move those monsters during your turn.
- C The Gargoyles appears to be a stone statue that does not move. The chest contains 200 gold coins, but it has a trap on it. If a Hero searches for treasure before the trap has been disarmed, the Gargoyle will spring to life and immediately attack. If a Hero disarms the trap first, he will discover (be told by you) what would have happened if he had searched for treasure before disarming the trap. The Gargoyle cannot be harmed until it has either moved or attacked a Hero.

In each Quest, notes prefaced with a capital letter correspond to a matching letter location on the Quest map.

NOTES:

'I shall guide you as far as the Great Gate. Beyond, fearsome foes await you. I shall watch over your progress and aid you when I can. Your first task is to find the wooden exit door that leads into the Warrior Halls.'

QUEST 1

At the beginning of each Quest, there is a message on parchment from Mentor. This message should be read aloud to all players. However, the Quest notes that follow are for Zargon's eyes only!

NOTES:

A When the last Hero passes the square marked "A," a giant stone boulder will fall from the ceiling. Place the round boulder tile on the square marked "A." On your (Zargon's) next turn and subsequent turns, roll 2 red dice to see how far down the corridor the boulder rolls (to the right, toward the Heroes.) The boulder will eventually crash into the wall at the end of the passage, on the corner square marked with a starburst. The passage will then be blocked for the rest of the Quest. Tell each Hero hit by the boulder to roll 5 combat dice. For each skull rolled, a Hero loses 1 Body Point. (No defend dice are rolled.) The boulder trap cannot be searched for or disarmed.

- B All of the traps in the corridors marked "B" are so well hidden that any Hero who searches for traps will find only 1 trap—the one closest to him. After a discovered trap has been sprung or disarmed, the next trap can be found if searched for. (The Heroes will have to discover this on their own.)
- C Place the wooden exit door here to fool the Heroes into thinking that this is an exit.
- D Use the spiral stairway tile from the Game System in this Quest. When a Hero steps onto this stairway, tell him that he has made it through the Spiral Passage.

The Spiral Passage

"Another giant iron door stands before you. Beyond, a series of staircases will eventually lead to the Great Citadel. It seems that those who journey through these passages are forever going down and around into the very heart of the mountain. Your goal is to find the spiral stairway. It will bring you deeper into the heart of the mountain—and closer to the Great Citadel. Beware! The Orcs may have laid traps to guard against attack."

NOTES:

- Ⓐ When this Orc is killed, he screams out and the door he was guarding opens. The monsters in the room must then be placed on the gameboard.
- Ⓑ The Fimir in this room knows the Chaos spell "Rust." (See Chaos spell card in Game System.) It can cast this spell on 3 separate turns. The first Hero to search for treasure in this room will find a beautiful fire opal hidden under the table. The opal is worth 100 gold coins.
- Ⓒ The first Hero to search for treasure in this room will find a Fire Ring in the chest. This powerful ring is explained on the new artifact card.

"Although the Orcs now dwell in these halls, they have yet to find the magical Dwarven Forge. The weapons forged by the Dwarves at the dawn of time are legendary. - A This door has been locked for many years. To open the door, a Hero must stand next to it and roll 2 red dice. If he rolls LESS than his starting number of Body Points, the door will open. If he fails to open the door, his turn ends.
- B The first Hero to search for treasure in this room will find 2 Potions of Healing in the chest. Each potion will restore up to 4 lost Body Points.
- C The first Hero to search for treasure in this room will find the third part of Grin’s stone map, as well as a spell scroll and a Magical Throwing Dagger! The Hero who finds these items should do the following:
- Take another one of the remaining map tokens.
 - Draw a spell scroll at random from the scroll cards and list it on his Character Sheet.
 - List the dagger on his Character Sheet. (See the new artifact card.)

NOTES:

- A The leader of these Orcs is Ograk, the infamous Orc Captain who led his evil marauders into the border provinces of the Empire. Use the Orc with the large notched sword to represent Ograk. Place Ograk on the square marked with his name. He is a mighty warrior whose stats are the same as a Chaos Warrior. On any one of your (Zargon's) turns, you may place the secret door tile on the gameboard and move Ograk through the secret door.
- B When a Hero tries to open this door, tell him that the door just won't budge.
- C The first Hero to search for treasure in this room will find an Elixir of Life in the table drawer. The Elixir is described on its matching artifact card in the Game System.

- D The Gargoyle in this room is a stone statue that cannot harm anyone and cannot be harmed. Of course, don't reveal this information right away. Sit back and watch the Heroes try to figure it out.
- E The first Hero to search for treasure in this room will find the last part of Grin's stone map in the chest. This Hero should take the remaining map token.
- F This wooden exit door leads to Belorn's mine. Tell the Heroes that there are Dwarven danger symbols on the door.

"The East Gate marks the end of the Halls of Belorn. To get to the Gate, you must make your way through several Quests. Your first goal is to negotiate the Eastern Passage. This passage is guarded by many foes, so take care! Along the way, you must locate the last part of Grin's map and then escape through the wooden exit door."

QUEST 9

"You have done well and journeyed far to reach this point! Now you must find the East Gate if you are to reach Grin's Crag and the Emperor. The Gate will undoubtedly be guarded, for you are now closer to Kellar's Keep than you have ever been. Beyond the East Gate, you will need the stone map, so protect the 4 pieces with your lives!"

NOTES:

“Now you must find your way to Grin’s Crag. Remember your task. Do not stray from it, for your enemies are too numerous. When you have passed Grin’s Crag you will reach a giant wooden door

- This room is filled with the blinding Cloud of Chaos. Any Hero who enters this room cannot see the other doors in the room, so do not place them on the gameboard at this time. (Monsters may not enter this room.) If a Hero enters the room, he must stop and roll 1 red die:
- If a Hero rolls a "1" or "2" on the die, he ends up back in the corridor on the square marked 1/2.
- If a Hero rolls a "3," "4," or "5," place one door in the position shown next to the square with the corresponding number rolled. Then, move the Hero through the door to the corresponding number. If the square is occupied, the Hero moves back into the room and treats his roll as a "6." See directions that follow.
- If a Hero rolls a "6," the Cloud of Chaos attacks and the Hero must roll 1 combat die. If a skull is rolled, he and any other Hero in the room lose 1 Body Point.

- This chest contains 250 gold coins. It also has a trap with an exploding lock. If a Hero searches for treasure before the trap has been disarmed, he will lose 3 Body Points.
- This cliff corridor is Grin’s Crag. The first player who moves onto the square marked "C" will activate the Guardian of Grin’s Crag. Place the Gargoyle on the square marked "X." On your (Zargon’s) next turn, the Gargoyle moves, attacks and defends as a normal Gargoyle would, but it is also immune to all spells and has 4 Body Points.
- This wooden exit door is magically locked and will not open until the Gargoyle is dead. After the last Hero passes through the door, read aloud the conclusion on the following page.

Conclusion

The door opened into the darkness of Kellar's Keep. From far above came the thunder of battle. The forces of Zargon were making their final assault. This time there could be no holding them. The Emperor assembled his elite force of Guardian Knights, determined to organize one last line of defense. Then came the news—a group of Heroes had found a secret passage into Kellar's Keep. Escape was now possible!

Without hesitation, the Emperor ordered his army to fall back towards the secret passage. Kenaron, the Captain of the Emperor's Guardian Knights, stood bravely at the gate, giving his fellow soldiers and the wounded time to escape.

Zargon and his foul forces could not be permitted to follow. Time and time again the evil Doomguard surged forward, only to be felled by Kenaron's sword.

Zargon watched for a while and smiled wryly at Kenaron's courage and skill-at-arms. A moment later Zargon's patience was spent. Kenaron fell before a searing storm of flame that burst against the gate.

But it was too late. Zargon's warriors howled in anger, for the escape passage had been destroyed. The Emperor and his army were safe.

"You have done well, brave Heroes. The Emperor has asked me to express his gratitude. Each of you will receive 500 gold coins for your efforts. But do not let victory deceive you. A dark cloud still hangs over the Empire as the forces of Chaos grow stronger. I shall look for ways to delay Zargon's advance. For now, rest well my friends. Once I have consulted Loreto, I shall summon you."
